

KAPSTONE PAPER AND PACKAGING CORPORATION

Disclosure Committee Charter

This Disclosure Committee Charter (the “Charter”) has been adopted by the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer (the “Senior Officers”) of KapStone Paper and Packaging Corporation (the “Company”) and ratified by the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors. The Disclosure Committee (the “Committee”) shall review and reassess this Charter annually and recommend any proposed changes to the Audit Committee for approval.

I. Purpose

It is the Company’s policy that all disclosures made by the Company to its security holders or the investment community should be accurate and complete and fairly present the Company’s financial condition and results of operations in all material respects, and should be made on a timely basis as required by applicable laws and stock exchange requirements.

The Committee shall assist the Senior Officers in fulfilling their responsibility for oversight of the accuracy and timeliness of the disclosures made by the Company by being responsible for the following tasks, in each case subject to the supervision and oversight of the Senior Officers.

- Design and establish controls and other procedures (which may include procedures currently used by the Company) that are designed to ensure that (1) information required by the Company to be disclosed to the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) and other written information that the Company will disclose to the investment community is recorded, processed, summarized and reported accurately and on a timely basis and (2) information is accumulated and communicated to management as appropriate to allow timely decisions regarding such required disclosure (“Disclosure Controls”).
- Monitor the integrity and effectiveness of the Company’s Disclosure Controls.
- Review and supervise the preparation of the Company’s (i) periodic and current reports, proxy statements, information statements, registration statements and any other information filed with the SEC and (ii) press releases containing financial information, earnings guidance, information about material acquisitions or dispositions or other information material to the Company’s security holders (collectively, the “Disclosure Statements”).

- Evaluate the effectiveness of the Company's Disclosure Controls prior to the filing of the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K and each Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q (collectively, the "periodic reports").
- Discuss all relevant information with respect to the Committee's proceedings, the preparation of the Disclosure Statements and the Committee's evaluation of the effectiveness of the Company's Disclosure Controls.

In discharging its duties, the Committee shall have full access to all Company books, records, facilities, and personnel, including the internal auditors.

II. Organization

The membership of the Committee shall consist of its Senior Officers (Roger Stone and Andrea Tarbox), Matthew Kaplan, Tim Keneally, Mark Niehus, Colin Connor and Tim Davisson. Members may be replaced, or new members added, at any time and from time to time by the Senior Officers. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Senior Officers, at their option, may at any time assume any or all of the responsibilities of the Disclosure Committee identified in the Charter, including, for example, approving Disclosure Statements when time does not permit the full Committee to meet.

One member of the Committee shall be appointed by the Senior Officers as chair. The chair shall be responsible for scheduling and presiding over meetings and preparing agendas. Any question of interpretation of this charter or the Committee's procedures shall be determined by any Senior Officer or, in their absence from any meeting, the chair.

The committee shall meet as frequently as circumstances dictate to (1) ensure the accuracy and completeness of the Disclosure Statements and (2) evaluate the Disclosure Controls and determine whether any changes to the Disclosure Controls are necessary or advisable in connection with the preparation of the Company's upcoming periodic reports or other Disclosure Statements, taking into account developments since the most recent meeting, including changes in the Company's organization and business lines and any change in economic or industry conditions.

III. Other Responsibilities

The Committee shall also have such other responsibilities as the Senior Officers may assign to it from time to time.
